ENGLISH in 100 DAYS

Wow, this is a big store!

Welcome to our dialogue! In this section we will get to know, and follow our characters as they encounter different situations at work, home, and around town. You will meet Alyson, Tom, Esteban and Barbara. Alyson is a young single mother living with her young son and her parents who emigrated to the United States from Mexico. Tom is an American who is the manager in the department store Stacey's, where Alyson finds a job. Esteban is a co-worker who befriends Alyson. Barbara is Tom's girlfriend who also works in the department store. Today is Alyson's first day on the job, and she and Tom discover that they have something in common. Let's see what it is...

Esteban: Excuse me, are you Alyson Miranda?
Alyson: Yes, I am.

31. Meeting co-workers

In this unit you will carry out the first exciting role-play activities. Throughout the course you will get to know various characters, and the common issues they face in their personal lives and work. You will learn about "Life in the U.S.", and review important phrases and expressions. You will also learn to use the verbs GO, GET, SHOW and COUNT, as well as expand your vocabulary. We will introduce two new grammar points to you: 1) The present simple and continuous with stative verbs, and 2) Asking for descriptions / the order of adjectives. We will also share useful learning tips with you, and you will have the opportunity to practice all you have learned with exercises and tests. So what are you waiting for? Let's begin, and remember: enjoy and have fun!
